A message from 3B Homestead:

You are invited to The Celebrate Easter event! It's not an Easter Egg Hunt....it
MUCH more!

News from The 3B Homestead

Celebrate Easter is right around the corner!

You are invited!

Come out to the homestead and have some fun!

When was the last time you held a baby goat, released a butterfly, or heard the sound of a baby calf call for its mother? How long has it been since you've used a hammer and nail, counted money, and/or watched a baby lamb run, jump and frolic around?

You can do all of these things, and many more, when you come to one of the Easter events at The 3B Homestead. You may ask, "What do these things have to do with Easter?" Actually, a lot! Come and see! The animals and farm items homestead present The Story of Easter in a unique, educational, meaningful, and fun way!

"Celebrate Easter" is located at:

The 3B Homestead

7603 298th Street (Highway 1)

Murdock, NE 68407

It's 35 minutes Northeast of Lincoln, 35 minutes Southwest of Omaha, on Highway 1.

What Does it Cost?

It's free and no tickets are needed. Donations are accepted to help offset costs of the events. There is a gift shop at the farm called The Stable Store, where you can purchase farm fresh eggs, gifts and keepsakes.

Select a time and day that you, your friends and family can come to this one-of-a-kind Easter event. It helps tell the life changing story of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Hallelujah!

Open to the Public:

- Weekend days of April 6, 12, & 13 from 2:00 to 5:00 pm

Open for Pre-Scheduled Private Visits (minimum of 15 people)

- Weekdays of April 7, 8, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16. Call and leave a message at 402-867-1802 to schedule a private visit.

Twin Myotonic goats

These cuties were born March 20, 2025.
A doling and a buckling.

Caterpillars

Painted Lady caterpillars will become
Painted Lady butterflies in April.

Barn Kittens

These cuties started opening their eyes today!

Blizzards

Two blizzards in the last weeks made the 'ole 1888 barn beautiful in a unique way. We are thankful for the moisture!

What is "Celebrate Easter?"

It's an Easter event where guests get to:

- Meet the farm animals and play with adorable springtime babies (some of those baby animals we've been talking about!)
- Listen to and make the sounds of Easter.
- Hold and examine items that help explain the first Easter
- Hammer nails, count money, look (but probably not touch) a real crown of thorns, smell vinegar, wonder about a butterfly chrysalis, and maybe, if the weather is cooperative, go on a hayrack ride.
- Drive through the homestead and view crosses. Guests are invited to bring a cross in memory of a loved one. It will be planted in the "Field of Crosses" along Highway 1. Look at the website www.3BHomestead.com for detailed information about the "Field of Crosses."
- Discover and hear the real reason we celebrate Easter ... It's not about the bunny; it's about The Lamb!
