

2020 Bible Conference

“God Meant it for Good!”

March 13–15, 2020
Crossroads Bible Church
17040 Hwy 1, Manley, NE, 68403

The conference theme this year comes from the words of Joseph in Genesis 50:20—

*“But as for you, you meant evil against me,
but God meant it for good,
in order to bring about this present result,
to preserve many people alive.”*

Our speakers will address the lives of Joseph, Jesus, and other followers of God who experienced evil but were able to discern the hand of God in their circumstances.

*There is no charge for the conference or the meal on Saturday, however, we would prefer you to register at www.crossroadsbible.net
so that we can plan for enough food.*

For additional information or questions, you can reach us at 402-499-4307, or email office@crossroadsbible.net

Childcare will be provided for children up through age 6.

Conference Speakers

Eldon Busenitz

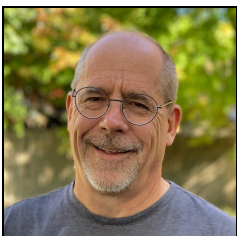

Keynote Speaker

Eldon Busenitz has 45 years of pastoral experience, having pastored churches in Nebraska, South Dakota, and Michigan. Eldon was raised on a farm in rural Kansas. His early ambitions were to farm and break horses. God changed his heart toward ministry while he was studying at Grace Bible Institute in Omaha, NE, leading to a love of ministry and a lifetime devoted to preaching and teaching the Word. Eldon and his wife Marliiss currently reside in Waxahachie, TX, near children and grandchildren.

Nathan Casebolt

Nathan was raised in Montana as the son of a minister. Nathan came to faith in Christ while in college. He earned his Master of Divinity from The Master's Seminary in 2007, and seeks to show the love of Jesus through sharing the Word of God and serving others. He has been married to his best friend Kristin since 2006, and he enjoys reading, playing long, complicated board games, & coffee. "But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus" Philippians, 3:13-14.

Jay O'Neal

Jay grew up in Lincoln and has worked at Voss Lighting for thirty-five years, holding various positions. He graduated with a B.S. in Business from Northwestern University, St. Paul, and earned a Master of Divinity degree from The Master's Seminary. Jay and his wife Lois have four children, and six grandchildren.

Come and be Refreshed by God's Word!

"Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great patience and instruction. The time will come when they will not endure sound teaching; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate teachers in accordance to their own desires, and will turn away their ears from the truth, turning aside to fables. But you, be sober in all things; endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry." — 2 Timothy 4:2-5
